RE: Supplement to Bureau Filing No. C-360
April 1, 2011 Loss Cost Filing

Dear Commissioner Pratter:

As part of Bureau Filing No. 240, temporary staffing classification Codes 544, 682, 929, 937 and 947 were discontinued effective December 1, 2010. However, the exposures and losses for the risks in those classifications could not be accurately reassigned to other approved classifications upon their discontinuation.

While no new business will be written using these discontinued classifications, the Experience Rating Plan still requires reference to expected loss factors (ELFs) associated with prior periods of exposure in computing experience modifications. The original submission of Bureau Filing C-360 inadvertently omitted ELFs for the above-cited classifications. Accordingly, the PCRB is hereby supplementing the April 1, 2011 Loss Cost Filing C-360 by adding the attached Exhibit 31 which includes appropriate ELFs for those codes.

Please consider this supplement as part of the April 1, 2011 filing as your office adjudicates that matter.

Sincerely,
